Appartement Aix-en-Provence

This rare loft measuring approximately 118 m², is a duplex apartment with two beautiful mezzanines, large living room with fireplace/dining room with fully equipped kitchen, three bedrooms (two of which are located on the mezzanine), two bathrooms, two toilets. If you are a lover of unusual goods, you will surely be tempted. This property is the combination of two apartments joined together which can again be separated into 2 very distinct accommodations. In the annex, two garages are sold with this property and to accommodate a large free parking space is present on the property. Located in the town of Puyricard close to all amenities on foot, 6 km from Aix-en-Provence, this Magnificent Loft on the top floor is a duplex apartment in a restored castle built in 1729. The castle has a large landscaped park/French garden of two hectares. Combining old-world charm and modern design, this prestigious property will delight you during your visit with its views of the Sainte-Victoire, view of its park and its absolute calm. Good acquired in delegation.
